DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- (A) Claims 1-16 disclose a method for enhancing the process of e-commerce comprising receiving product information, mapping said product information, assigning said product information to a template, selecting a marketplace, and broadcasting the template to the marketplace.
- (B) Claims 17-18 disclose a method for enhancing the process of e-commerce comprising a client product, an e-commerce site, a client set-up manager, and a product page designer.
- (C) Claims 19-25 disclose a computational system for enhancing the process of e-commerce comprising an Internet communication link, a storage device storing a database of client product information, a computer that executes a program that selects appropriate e-commerce web site placement, and a statistical tool for evaluating said collection of Web page activity data.

Inventions (B) and (A) are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention as defined by

Art Unit: 3625

Group (B) has separate utility as defined by Group (A). For example, Group (B) claims a client set-up manager and a product page designer. See MPEP § 806.05(d). The limitation of the method for enhancing the process of e-commerce claimed in Group (B) are not linked or related to those limitations disclosed in Group (A).

Inventions (B) and (C) are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention as defined by Group (B) has separate utility as defined by Group (C). For example, Group (B) claims a client set-up manager and a product page designer. See MPEP § 806.05(d). The limitation of the method for enhancing the process of e-commerce claimed in Group (B) are not linked or related to those limitations disclosed in Group (C).

Inventions (C) and (A) are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention as defined by Group (C) has separate utility as defined by Group (A). For example, Group (C) claims a storage device storing a database of client product information and a computer that executes a program that selects appropriate e-commerce web site placement. See MPEP § 806.05(d). The limitation of the computational system for enhancing the process of e-commerce claimed in Group (C) are not linked or related to those limitations disclosed in Group (A).

Art Unit: 3625

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
